SCOUT applied just before the ICA on a resting state subject data
In this case SCOUT value is half the max value. When the scout value is equal to max, the results are similar.
Spatial correlation with the components without adding the SCOUT